August

She dreams of August in the singing morning,

 When all the little things come out to play,

When every spiders web is sticky, lacy,

And every kid will have the pinkest day.

She fell in love in August as a girl.

His smile was melting smooth like green ice cream,

she wanted him in August and she got him,

He was her love, her every glowing dream.

August takes you back to yellow meadows,

To days when Grandmas made you lemonade,

To nights when how you begged to stay out later,

And afternoons with novels in the shade.

To kittens that you loved and have forgotten...

To mum and dad who loved you for all time,

To him who waited somewhere in the hot night,

To kisses made of moonbeams, green as lime,

August, sultry August, month of magic.

Dragonflies become you... you are rare,

Fireflies anoint you with their glowing,

August burning month, your love I wear.

Polite Reminder

Can we remind everyone that whilst there is building work going on at the back of Hewlett Court there is no access to the back of the building beyond the barrier or path. Can all Residents take care when on the carpark as there are large vehicles driving to the rear. If anyone requires access to the back of the building, please speak to a member of staff.

Volunteers Wanted!

As the Pop-Up Shop event is fast approaching, we will be holding a fashion catwalk on Friday 9th August at Hewlett Court. This will give everyone the opportunity to view some of the clothes which will be on sale on the day of the event on Saturday 17th August. We are looking for volunteers to help model the clothing. If this is something you can help with, please speak to the Management Team.
