The Month of May

I love the lazy month of May;
The days all seem to be the best.
Yet I said the same thing about April,
When the robins were building their nest.
The stately daffodils and tulips
Burst forth in grand array.
Blooming reds and yellows share
In what I call 'a perfect day.'
Blue skies above with their puffy clouds
Watch the sunshine through the trees.
The air carries the smells of Spring
Wafted by love on the gentle breeze.
Each day of May, receives a blessing.
No matter where you happen to be.
Far and wide, from earth to sky,
God's beauty abounds for all to see.

Birthdays this month!
